

I hope you enjoyed looking around your new nursery. Hazel and Haris are saying goodbye now, but they will see you in September. Can you please draw us a picture of you in the space below and bring it with you on your first day at Nursery.

Starting My New Nursery

This is Hazel and Haris and it is their first day at nursery too. Let's have a look around together.

This is the gate where your adult will drop you off and pick you up at the end of the day.

These are my teachers.

This is where we hang our coats.

This is where we go to the toilet and wash our hands.

There are lots of things to do inside, what do I play with first!

We love to play and learn outside.
